For a Policy Change

Senator James Eastland has introduced a Senate resolution that the U.S. Government immediately cease its inhumane, illegal, arbitrary, unfair, harmful, and costly policy of economic sanctions against Rhodesia, take necessary steps to compensate United States citizens for any financial losses incurred as a result of such a policy, and resume this Nation's former policy of honorable self-interest toward this friendly country. Passage of this resolution will keep freedom strong over communism.

WALTER TABAKA.
Chairman, Polish American Political Action Committee.
Washington.